From the Pastor

“Surprise!” Has this word ever greeted you as friends and family pop up from behind furniture and peek out from behind doors to let you know that they love you enough to surprise you with a birthday party? It is a moment that most of us wish to avoid (we never know how to respond) but one which most of us would appreciate for its sincerity and concern that we have a good birthday, anniversary or promotion at work. The one time this happened to me, I responded by promptly dropping the groceries I was carrying and my guests and I spent the next several minutes wiping up spilled milk and splattered eggs. I was never very good with surprises. My carpet was never the same again.

Many surprises are good: a marriage proposal when we least expect it; finding out the gender of our baby when he or she is born (unless we have “cheated” with an ultrasound); an income tax return we didn’t expect; or a visit from a cherished friend or relative that we didn’t anticipate. We usually recover quickly enough to enjoy the moment and we are grateful for the event.

However, a great many of the surprises we receive in life are not good news. We have no choice but to deal with them, but these events take our breath away and often leave us wondering how we will cope. I don’t know anyone who has escaped this kind of surprise. One thing I have learned from the unwelcome surprises in my life is that the loving, comforting presence of God is very much present, regardless of my inability to respond to an unexpected event. It takes a while for us to get our bearings when something jolts our personal universe. In shock from happenings beyond our ability to understand, it takes us time to get our feet under us and regain our equilibrium. Fortunately, it takes God no time at all to be present to us, offering consolation, hope and healing when we are ready to recognize His actions in our lives.

We are just about ready to celebrate the biggest surprise the world has ever seen: the Resurrection of our Lord. While His death brought pain and suffering to His friends and followers, His Resurrection brought salvation and hope to the whole world. Where death and mourning usually had the last word, Jesus’ Resurrection shows us that what we see is not necessarily what we get. On Easter morning we are surprised by joy – joy that reaches us across time and enters once again into our lives. It is a joy that delves into our surprises and triumphs over our expectations. Jesus’ Resurrection reminds us of the love that will not relinquish its hold on us, embracing us through all circumstances of our lives.

This Easter season, my prayer is that we will somehow grasp anew the surprise and joy of the Resurrection. While we sing our alleluias and offer our prayers of thanksgiving, may the true gifts of the season be ours – not so we might hoard them, but so that we will be inspired to share the story and the reality of God’s love in our lives. With you, I will welcome Easter and with you I will once again embrace God's promise of life eternal, fashioned for us in the mind of God and in the reality of Jesus Christ.

Christ is risen! He is risen indeed! Alleluia!

If, like many of us, you have slipped a bit on your Lenten resolutions, or perhaps have not had time for them, there is still time since Lent is not yet over. Please consider the following:

Refocus for Lent

- Give up complaining - focus on gratitude
- Give up harsh judgments - think kind thoughts
- Give up worry - trust God to provide
- Give up discouragement - be full of hope
- Give up bitterness - turn to forgiveness
- Give up hatred - return good for evil
- Give up anger - be more patient
- Give up pettiness - become mature
- Give up jealousy - pray for trust
- Give up gossiping - control your tongue
- Give up sin - turn to virtue
- Give up giving up - persevere

Spring is here and we are seeing a great “bloom” of learning happening in Christian Education! The Pre Kindergarten/Kindergarten class is now being taught by a few of our high school students in an effort to help foster new teachers! Kathy MacCulloch has begun her Bible class with our 3rd and 4th graders where they explore the Bible in a whole new way. The Junior High group has a new teacher as well, Chris Beals, who is new to teaching Sunday School but certainly not teaching. Chris has already engaged this group in some deep discussions and also their fair share of messes! What does an egg on a box have to do with a person’s Temple? Ask a Junior Higher! I encourage our Congregation to visit us downstairs sometime and see all the fun we are having and experience the learning that is taking place in our ever-changing youth! I am amazed every Sunday at the capacities of their young minds to comprehend these lessons and deep truths God has provided us with. They are truly a wonder!

On another note, as the school year comes to a close, I am seeking teachers for next school year. It’s never too early to have questions answered! Please let me know if you would like to talk about helping out. I hope to have many repeats as well as lots of new faces for our kids! They love to learn from the adults especially the new ones! It is the most rewarding experience and what better way to see the foundation of our church strengthen!

I hope you all are enjoying this warmer weather we are having and continue to have a great Spring.

Warmly, Amanda Ward, CE Coordinator

NEWS FROM THE MAINE CONFERENCE UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

The Maine Conference is seeking an Associate Director for Outdoor Ministries. This will be a full time position with benefits. Application deadline is April 11th. For all details, please go to: <http://maineucc.org/associate/>

The Academy for Congregational Life and Leadership has begun accepting applications for a new class, which will begin in Sept. 2012. Or, you can email Peggy Dunn at meuccacademy@gmail.com or call 207-841-3027 for more information or to request application materials.

In the Resource Center - Shame-Less Lives, Grace-Full Congregations by Karen A. McClintock
McClintock takes readers on a journey in which we learn to recognize the many forms shame takes and explore and heal the shame of our own upbringing, particularly the shame-laden messages within our own religious teachings and practices. She illustrates the ways shame-laden leaders interact with congregations and ways congregational shame influences clergy and laity within the system. She shows us how to recognize shame in the behavior of other leaders and clergy around us, to reduce shame-reinforcing theology, and to provide alternative messages of hope and healing. She also guides us in liberating others from their shame, be they friends, colleagues, or people in a congregation where we worship and serve. Please remember that the cart for the online catalog is not working, to order any resources send emails to resourcecenter@maineucc.org or call 1-800-244-0937 or 207-846-5118.

Resurrection COUNTDOWN

Make this interactive craft to use as Easter approaches.

What you need:

- An empty egg carton
- Scissors
- Tissue paper (a dark color)
- Pencil
- Bible
- 12 slips of white paper
- Glue
- Marker

What you do:

1. Cut the lid and side flaps off the egg carton.
2. Lay the carton open-side down on tissue paper. Trace and cut out the rectangular shape.
3. On the paper slips, write 12 verses from John 12 about Holy Week (including one about Easter).
4. Place each slip in an egg cup, in order, starting at the top left and ending (with the Easter verse) at the bottom right.
5. Put glue around cups and carton edges. Lay the tissue paper on top.
6. Gently mark numbers 1-6 on the tissue paper along the top row and 7-12 along the bottom.
7. Before Easter, punch through one cup each day and read the verse.

The purpose of the gospel

The gospel of John records many signs and miracles that Jesus performed in front of his disciples. Discover why these were written.

Directions: Use a Bible to fill in the missing letters of John 20:31. Then write the shape-enclosed letters in the corresponding boxes and circles below, in order of appearance, to discover John's message.

"...  e  ie  e  hat  es  s is th  es  iah, the S  n of  od,  nd tha  by be    ing  ou m  y
 ha  e lif  i  hi  na  e."

JOHN 20:31, NIV

Answers: "... believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name."
 Just Believe!

The JOY of the Resurrection

We Christians simply cannot get over the reality of the Resurrection. For us, the fact that God raised Christ from the dead proves that Christ's way alone is God's answer to the sins and horrors of the world. The truths Christ brought when he walked on Earth stand solid and irrefutable. The light he brought is the only light that never goes out for it is the eternal light of God's glory.

Christ's life is truly the clearest example of how God intends for us to live. Christ's way is the way that makes the most sense for living on this earth. The true saints have proven that over and over.

The hope which Christ offers us is the only true and lasting hope. Ultimately, it is our only real assurance that life can be good and joyous for everyone. Read the words St. Paul wrote to the church at Rome and apply it to your own life: "Just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life. For if we have been united with him in a death like his, we will certainly be united with him in a resurrection like his" (Romans 6:4-5, nrsv).

If that is not a tremendous cause for abiding joy, then what is?
